RE: Form LM-30 Filing for Juan J. Hernandez, Labor Organization File No. 027-211

Dear Sir or Madam:

On several occasions in 2004, particularly during holiday seasons, I recall that I was given complimentary items, a (wine and cheese basket, fruit basket, holiday ham, holiday turkey, gourmet foods, etc.). At no time did I solicit such item(s), and it/they were sent to my office without my prior knowledge or authorization. I did not retain possession of any of these items, as I shared them with the individuals in my office. My actions were in line with published Office of Government Ethics guidelines, which state, "When it is not practical to return a tangible item because it is perishable, the item may, at the discretion of the employee's supervisor or agency ethics official, be given to an appropriate charity, shared within the recipient's office, or destroyed." C.F.R. 2635.205.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed is my Labor Organization Officer and Employee Report LM-30 for the 2004 reporting period. In filing the report, I have reviewed all of my available 2004 records as well as my recollection. I have provided my best estimate or an estimated price range for the value of the benefit received where I have no knowledge as to an exact amount.

As you know, it was not until March of this year that the Department of Labor initially announced its intention to provide additional guidance to the reporting community concerning the LM-30 report, to seek systemic compliance with these requirements, and to apply standards adopted in 2005 retroactively to 2004 as a base year in that effort. Further, the Department since that time has continued to issue and revise its compliance advice, including guidance regarding related benefit funds. My understanding is that the Department's guidance to date on LM-30 reporting is still changing and remains uncertain in various particulars.

It may be possible that a covered employer or business not listed on my LM-30 report for 2004 provided something of value as to which I have no documentary record nor any present specific recollection. In accordance with your guidance, it is my understanding that, in that circumstance, I am not required to take any further action.

This filing reflects my good faith effort to comply with the LM-30 reporting provisions in doing so, I have relied upon the evolving guidance from the Department. The enclosed material represents my best recollection and estimate of all lawfully reported benefits that I received in 2004.

Sincerely,

Juan J. Hernandez
